The End Times in Real Time

BY CYNTHIA BEHR

Over the past 5 years there have been more blood moons and harvest moons than in times past. People have been buzzing about the significance and meaning behind these apparent 'Signs of our Age'. While there remains a bit of controversy over prophecy and when the eventual End will come, we can all be assured that God is true to His Word.

April 8th, 2024 Total Solar Eclipse/The Franklin Institute

In total, there have been or will be 3 lunar eclipse blood moons and one penumbral lunar eclipse micro full moon with a gray to gold hue due to the Earth's shadow within the 2 year window of these solar eclipses. Certainly, this qualifies as a unique event. It seemed people were expecting the eclipse itself to be some cataclysmic event as when Jesus died upon the cross and Noah arrived in Nineveh. It's important to remember that these are signs and there are messages that can be extrapolated from the paths of totality. But the event itself was otherwise uneventful.

In the Old Testament, the prophet Joel prophesied, "The sun shall be turned into darkness, And the moon into blood, Before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD." (Joel 2:31) This verse indicates that we can expect a blood moon and a solar eclipse before the Lord returns. It's important to recall that a tetrad of blood moons also occurred in 2014-2015. For this reason, pastors, theologians, scientists and lay people have observed that there is a greater frequency of these phenomena. Many religions and folklore attribute meaning to blood moons and solar eclipses when celestial bodies and planets align. Thus various people-groups will train their eyes on the sky. Continued on Page 2...

Do not be fooled into a false expectation followed by disappointment when man's hopeful expectation does not manifest the way he believes it should. Be careful in your expectations. God's ways are higher than our ways.

Arguments and speculation abound. Some reason that Jesus is returning for a spotless bride. Their argument rests upon this reasoning since the Church is not spotless, rather far from it, thus Christ is not coming back any time soon. This reasoning is based on fallacious assumptions that are not written in the Bible. The Bride will never be spotless and can never be until she meets the Bridegroom in the sky. Saints, "see that no one deceives you," but also that you do not deceive yourselves.

Lately, people have been quoting the Scripture verse, "You will not know the hour or the day" (Matt 24:36) warning others not to be focused on a day or when the rapture will come. Yet in the previous verses leading up to verse 36, Jesus said this:

By these signs you will know that the time draws near. "Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. So you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near—at the doors! Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place." — Matthew 24:32-34

The Word is saying that the generation that was alive to see the beginning of sorrows, the birth pains, the signs in the firmament, the drying up of the Euphrates River, the breaking off of the continent of Africa, further separating both spiritually and geologically from the continents of Europe and Asia, wars and rumors of wars, rivers turning blood red, appearance of blood moons, preparation of the spotless red heifers (which was cited as Hamas' reason for their October 7th massacre), the development of plans to rebuild the Jewish temple, etc, etc, will not pass away before all of these things take place. You have very clear, objective signs and events foreshadowing the coming of our Lord. All this reporter is surmising is that "the time is drawing near."

Signs in the Heavens

Comets, novas, Northern Lights, and paths of totality for eclipses are all examples of signs in the heavens. I will briefly expound upon a few of these in the following points.

- Comet - The infamous comet known by its scientific designation Comet 12P/Pons-Brooks, was recently nicknamed the Devil's Comet, because it developed horns from two outbursts on its profile. This 18-mile-wide comet which passes by the Earth every 71.2 years, was visible in our night sky during April, and was closest to the sun on April 21, 2024, and closest to the earth along its trajectory in June 2024. Prior to April this year, it last appeared in Earth's night skies in 1954. The next time it will enter Earth's proximity is in 2095. Originally, the comet only displayed one outburst. In October of 2023 the comet developed the second outburst which coincidentally is when the previous solar eclipse crossed the United States.

- Path of Totality of the April 8th, 2024 Eclipse – One of the most striking signs that God is speaking are the recent and coming Solar Eclipses. On August 21, 2017, a solar eclipse crossed the United States with its path of totality hitting first Salem, OR, and a total of 7 Salem's as it crossed our nation from northwest to the southeast coast in South Carolina.

The Path of Totality of the April 8th, 2024, eclipse crossed 2 Nineveh's and near 5 more Nineveh's just outside the direct path, but more remarkable is that it crossed 26 more cities with the name Salem, for a total of 33 cities biblical-named cities experiencing the Solar eclipse. This reminds us of the 33 years of Our Messiah's earthly life. Salem is the original name of Jerusalem and it's the City of Peace. Originally, Melchizedek King of Salem was first mentioned in Genesis 14:19 when Abram shared the first communion and first tithing recorded in the Bible, aside from first fruits from cultivating the land.

Hebrews 7 also refers to King Jesus as having appeared to Abram as Melchizedek of Salem... Prince of Peace... He is anointing America once again with Peace reminding us to look up for our redemption draws nigh. Yes, the people in America need to repent. Hollywood, sports and entertainment industries definitely need some Jesus. Our government and political leaders seriously need some time on their knees, but what I think weary, battle worn saints need is some hope, some rest for our weary souls.

Pray For

Believers to be ready for the return of our Lord and Savior, and not fearful of His return.

The prophetic signs we see in the skies to be a welcomed reminder of Jesus's return.

Peace over our country, rather than in-fighting, as redemption draws near.

The people of Woodland Park to use the prophetic signs in our skies as opportunities to share about Jesus's return, and what this means for them eternally.

Pray Against

False prophets who will use the imminent return of Jesus to induce division and fear.

Controversy over prophecy. Which is not what our focus should be on, but instead on relationship with Jesus.

Division in our country, causing people to lose focus on what really matters: living for Jesus.

The people of Woodland Park being divided over the prophetic signs in our skies, and not reaching out to those who don't know Jesus.

Righteous Anger and God's Love: A Devotional

BY GABRIELLA BUCCI

Kingdom Chronicle Staff

What makes you mad? Or just infuriates you? We all have something that causes our emotions to rouse up at times. Jesus did too.

When Jesus said to be salt and light, I believe He meant it. There is a reason why we are called 'Little Christs', you and I are to walk IN THE LIKENESS OF CHRIST. So, what makes Him mad should make us mad, right? It's righteous anger. You see it in Jesus when He flipped the tables in the temple because the people were disrespecting the Lord by making it their version of a shopping center. The temple was for the Holy presence of the living God, not merchandise! That was righteous anger. In the Old Covenant, you see God bringing a lot of Judgment on His people. They did some ridiculous things including, but not limited to, sacrifices to other gods, incense burning, adultery, and idol worshiping. There was so many vile sins they were doing with their backs fully turned toward the Lord. They did not care. The Lord brought much judgment on them over the years, but at one point in Ezekiel chapter 16, you see His care for His people. You see how He gave the women their beauty. He crowned their heads with jewels and clothed them with gold and silver. Right after this you see Him say "But you thought your fame and beauty were your own" (Ezekiel 16:15). Later in verse 31, He calls these same women worse than prostitutes because they were doing this act for free, paying others instead of getting paid. This sounds outrageous, and is what makes the Lord mad. Now, read verses 20-22:

“Then you took your sons and daughters—the children you had borne to me—and sacrificed them to your gods. Was your prostitution not enough? Must you also slaughter my children by sacrificing them to idols?

Little Obi's God Is Good

BY JOY OTI

Kingdom Chronicle Staff

In a small rural town in Barking lived a young boy named Obi. At four years old, he was smart, cheerful and loved to go to church. Obi's grandmother lived with them since he was born, and she instilled in him the habit of gratitude. He was taught to give thanks for everything he received. From the time he was old enough to speak, his grandmother always read two bible stories to him; one with a general theme, and the second one was always on gratitude. He won the hearts of his teachers at school and neighbors at home because of his constant show of gratitude. Obi's parents had just moved to a new church and decided Obi would stay with them in the adult church.

Every Sunday, people were given the opportunity to give a testimony. Though he was new in the church, Obi was excited to hear that anyone could come out and give a testimony. So, when the pastor called for people to come give their testimony, Obi gladly raised his hands. Everyone was excited to see such a young boy and were eager to hear his testimony. Even his parents were surprised, because they didn't know what he was going to testify about. When the microphone was given to him, with a broad smile Obi shouted with his tiny voice, "I want to testify that Obi's God is good and the church is safe!" He immediately handed the microphone over to the pastor and ran to his parents, as the entire church clapped for him.

The next Sunday, when it was testimony time, Obi raised his hands again. The pastor smiled and called him up. Again, he excitedly announced, "I want to testify that Obi's God is good and the church is safe!" and then he gave the pastor back the microphone and ran off to his parents. Everyone laughed again, yet to some people this was a little boy's play time. For three Sundays, Obi repeatedly came out to testify the same thing. But by the fourth Sunday, when the pastor made the call, Obi's parents won't let him and the pastor wouldn't invite him too. After the service, Obi went to the pastor and asked him, "Pastor Justine, why didn't you let me testify?" The pastor stooped to his level and answered softly, "Obi, testimony times at church are not play times. You always say the same thing, and people are beginning to wonder why I am allowing you play in church." Disappointed, Obi said to him, "But I am not playing. Obi's God is really good and the church is safe because Obi's God is good." The pastor laughed and said to him, "my little one, everything you have said is true. But the next time you have a bigger testimony or something different, I will let you tell the church, okay?"

The following Sunday during testimony time, Obi raised his hands and this time yelled from his seat, "I have something new pastor." Everyone in church turned to his direction, and his parents, a little embarrassed tried to hush him, but Obi won't be silenced. To avoid the ensuing drama, Pastor Justine invited him to the altar and gave him the microphone. Holding the microphone Obi started to testify in a different way. "My name is Obi, and Obi's God is good." Hearing the usual sentence, Pastor Justine shook his head and dismay, and tried to take the microphone from him. But Obi told him he was not done. So, Pastor Justine gave him more time. Then Obi continued, "Pastor Justine told me to testify of something new. The new thing is, this church is safe because Obi's God is good. We all came to church and we will all go home, because Obi's God is good and God loves you. Hallelujah!" Then he handed the microphone to the pastor and ran off to meet his parents. The church clapped, while some people thought he was a funny little boy.

When the service was over, Obi was with his parents and Pastor Justine decided to let them know Obi should be taken out of the church during testimony time so he wouldn't be a distraction. As soon as Obi saw him, he ran up to him and asked, "Did you like my testimony, Pastor Justine?"

Righteous Anger and God's Love: A Devotional

BY GABRIELLA BUCCI
Kingdom Chronicle Staff

In all your years of adultery and detestable sin, you have not once remembered the days long ago when you lay naked in a field, kicking about in your own blood.”

What do you think of this? It may seem intense but that is what I want to bring across to you. This is a perfect Father, perfect God speaking. You can see His jealousy here for His children. The women have not even bothered to go back to where they started, to who they owe all this to. They sent their creator out the window and their pride led them down a path of destruction. These children belong to the Lord and they, with no remorse, just light them on fire? 'How dare they!' God must have been thinking. He even said "the children you had borne to me". No wonder He had such judgment on these people. Now don't think that the Lord is just this ball of hatred. He isn't. He is love, remember? And His word doesn't contradict itself, as we know. However, He hates sin. No questions, no exceptions. Sin cannot exist in the presence of God and He did not create sin for mankind either. This sin, which tainted mankind, is from the devil. The Lord's wrath has come out here in these chapters because He wants to keep a remnant of His people clean to bring His son, so that the history of mankind can be made clean. So that we might be righteous and called His. The way you see Him reacting here is his same attitude with abortion today. He is jealous for every child regardless if we want them. He does.

Later in verse 38 of the same chapter, the Lord calls this act murder. So, for perspective, we could safely assume abortion to be the same. The interesting thing is that He says "And I will judge you as women who break wedlock or shed blood are judged; I will bring blood upon you in fury and jealousy." The punishment of something like that is death. He says later that He wiped out Sodom for their sins, and calls Jerusalem's sins worse. His plan is clear. It is part of His nature that He loves His people and hates sin. That's where you see his jealousy, because He longs for His people to be His again, not wrapped up in the enemy's deceit. It's His longing to separate His people from sin. That's why we see this intense jealousy from Him. He is bringing this upon them "in fury and jealousy". Lamentations 3: 32-33 says this, "Though he brings grief, he also shows compassion because of the greatness of his unfailing love. For he does not enjoy hurting people or causing them sorrow" I wanted to share this verse because it explains so well His character. If God doesn't enjoy doing it, then imagine how intense their sins would need to be for Him to bring such judgment? He loves, that is always His motive.

So, do we as believers see this? Do we know how intense His love is? I pray you do. This is what I want to challenge you with. As you read this, let the Lord open more of His love to you. Not just His jealous love for you, but for others. The heart and motive you see in the Father throughout this devotional is the same kind of motive we ought to have for any kind of discipleship. You and I have been called to be salt and light and to make disciples. We should be known by our love, but “Are we?” is the question.

A Million Women – An Esther Call to the Mall

BY NICOLE BRAUCHLI

Kingdom Chronicle Staff

On October 12, 2024, the Day of Atonement, Lou Engle Ministries is calling for a million women, Esthers, young and old with their husbands and children, to gather on the National Mall in Washington DC to unite in prayer and save our nation from the persecution of our children. Why the Day of Atonement? The Day of Atonement is called Yom Kippur in the Jewish tradition and considered the holiest day of the year in Judaism. It is a Jewish holiday devoted to the atonement of sins based on Leviticus 23:26-27:

"The Lord spoke to Moses, saying, 'On exactly the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement; it shall be a holy convocation for you, and you shall humble your souls and present an offering by fire to the Lord.'"

Atonement is not just a legalistic way of digging up all our past trespasses and begging the Lord for forgiveness. Throughout the Old Testament, atonement becomes a visible display of the Lord's passionate commitment to redeem His people. Redemption has always been God's plan for us and atonement is the bridge between our fallen nature and a close relationship with our Lord and Savior. As Christians we celebrate the accomplishment of atonement once and for all by the one true lamb.

Esther changed the history of the Jewish people. She did not choose to be in the position she was in, but when the time was critical, she chose to risk her life rather than live for self-preservation alone, to make intercession before the king for her people, and in doing so she saved the Jews worldwide from genocide. On October 12th, we want to unite as Christians, Esthers and Mordecais, to come together in a massive prayer movement for our nation and our children that are suffering under anti-Christ legislation, persecution, and anti-family ideologies which threaten to destroy the very social fabric and foundations that this nation was built upon, was preserved by, and by which it prospered.

Francis Frangipane was studying the history of revivals, and saw that there was an organized prayer movement preceding each revival – except one. The Jesus Movement. He asked the Lord as to why. The Lord's reply: "I answered the prayers of a million mothers." In the counter-cultural revolution of the 60's, where millions of youth were being drowned in the drug, sexual, and ideological rebellion – a million mothers cried out for their children. And God answered.

If you are alive today you were born for such a time as this. The battle for our children is now, as the darkness that is trying to overtake them is more visible than ever. You have a role to play. We all do. Let's take up our armor and change history on October 12th from 9 AM until 6 PM. Together we will stand.

DC MALL, OCTOBER 12, 2024

A MILLION WOMEN

CALLING A MILLION ESTHERS AND MORDECAIS TO PRAY, FAST, STAND ON THE DAY OF ATONEMENT.

A million Esthers gather on the DC mall, to cry out for the children for death has climbed through our windows. There we take a stand for truth and mercy. There we lift up the blood of Jesus declaring the victory of the cross over the powers. Gather the mothers and the daughters and the Mordecais and sons on the Day of Atonement. A day that must not be missed, who knows if you have come into the kingdom for such a time as this!

Love Letters With God – Jesus Is In Your Morning

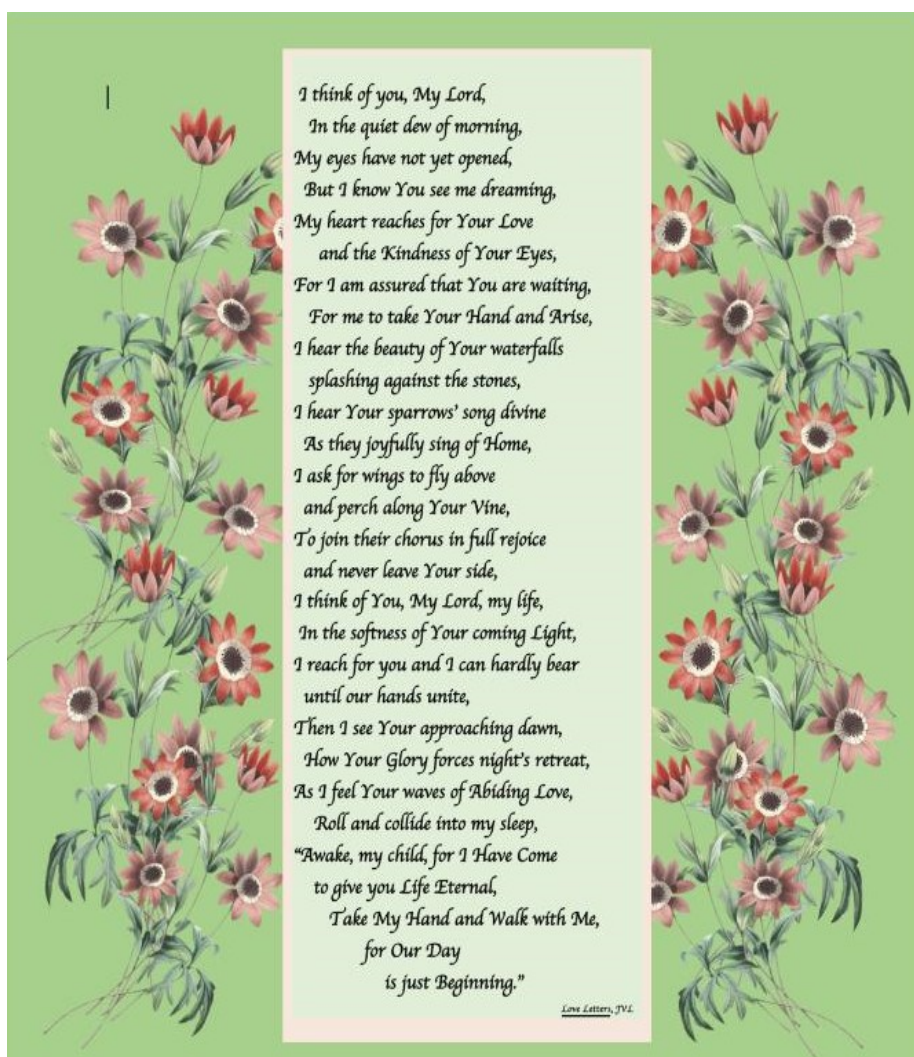

BY JULIA LEE

Kingdom Chronicle Staff

Early in the morning have you ever been in that place right before you are fully awake and hear God's voice welcoming you into the new day? I always love it when I begin to leave sleep and ease into waking up and my heart says "Good Morning Father, Good Morning Lord Jesus, Good Morning Holy Spirit" and I hear God softly say within my heart "Good Morning Julia." It is heart conversation and a perfect place to start the day. I know that Jesus is in our morning, afternoon, evening and as we sleep but one particular morning the Lord started writing a Love Letter with me just before I was fully awake. I wrote down what I heard in my heart and the beautiful images and sounds that only my heart eyes and ears could receive. (Editor's Note: See the bellow picture)

In Psalm 143:8 (NKJV) David wrote "cause me to hear Your lovingkindness in the morning, For in You do I trust; Cause me to know the way in which I should walk,

For I lift up my soul to You." David was thinking of the Lord and lifting His thoughts up to Him. David wanted to hear His lovingkindness in the morning because he trusted the Lord and needed His guidance. We can experience that same lovingkindness from the Lord as we trust Him and live in the knowledge that we are one with Him. In 1 Corinthians 6:17 God's Word tells us that he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him and this is great news. Because our spirits are one with the Lord and He lives within us, we can experience His lovingkindness every morning. We are never alone, Jesus will never leave us nor forsake us. He is there with you every morning waiting for you, longing for you to take His hand and walk with Him. I can't imagine a more perfect way to start the day than with Jesus and hearing Him say "Arise, and shine; For your light has come! And the glory of Lord has risen upon you." Isaiah 60:1 (NKJV)

Little Obi's God Is Good

BY JOY OTI

Kingdom Chronicle Staff

"Your testimony was fine, but..." Just before Pastor Justine concluded his statement, a deacon told him a man was waiting to see him and it was urgent. "Wait here with your parents, I will be back," said Pastor Justine. When he got to his office with the deacon, he saw the young man who looked like he'd been crying. "How may I help you, young man. Is everything okay?" Pastor Justine asked. The man brought out a gun, and Pastor Justine and the deacon fell back in fright. "No, no! I am not killing anyone," the man said, as he started to cry again. "I actually came here to take revenge on this church, and kill as many people as I am able to. My father was a pastor for many years, and when he got sick, the church didn't help. He died a miserable death. But when that little boy came up and said what he said, I just couldn't do it anymore. Please pray for me!" The young man gave the gun to Pastor Justine and was escorted to the counseling office.

When Pastor Justine went back to see Obi and his parents, he had a sober look on his face. He stooped down to Obi, and Obi asked him, "what you were you going to tell me Pastor Justine?" Holding Obi by the shoulder, Pastor Justine said to him, "I was going to tell you that every Sunday, you can testify, even if it is the same testimony." Obi got excited and ran off to tell his friends. His parents were surprised and asked Pastor Justine why he told him that. "I said what I said, because little Obi's God is really good!"

THE MORAL OF THE STORY

Nothing God does for us is ever too small to testify. Sometimes we take things for granted and never realize how blessed we are. Testifying of God's goodness not only gives Him the glory, but blesses us and the people who hear us. You never know if someone's freedom is hinged on the testimony you are holding back for being too little or insignificant. Look around you, there's something God has done, go and tell someone out there, you just might save a life.
